OTHER NEWS

Fall Conference

October 23 and 24, 2015

Clair Mellenthin, LCSW, RPT-S

Friday we focus on The How, When, & Why's: Including Parents in Play Therapy, where we will explore both sides of the coin- the parent's reserve and resistance as well as the anxiety and questions faced by play therapists. Ms. Mellenthin will teach us new tools to engage and preserve the parent-child-therapist relationship, techniques to invite the parent to play, and language to explain the power of play therapy to the most skeptical parent!

*location will be announced in August!!

CONGRATULATIONS TO

Lisa Dion, MS, LPC, RPT-S from Boulder, CO!

Lisa is the recipient of The Association for Play Therapy's Award of Excellence for Professional Education and Training. Well done!

SAVE THE DATE

Our Spring Conference with Liana Lowenstein, MSW, RSW, CPT-S will be held in FEBRUARY 2016. More information coming soon!!

Foundations of Play Therapy

presented by Jane L. Johnson, LLC, LCSW, RPT-S

Day 1: Friday, September 18, 2015 Models and Methods of Play Therapy

If you are familiar with play therapy but would like to learn more, this workshop will help you identify play therapy skills that you may want to develop further. Experiential activities will help assess your playroom, expand your toolbox of methods and deepen your understanding of the therapeutic power of play. (6 CE hours)

Day 2: Saturday, September 19, 2015 History of Play Therapy

Both novices and teachers of play therapy will enjoy a lively, accurate account of historical events, movements and pioneers responsible for developing the therapeutic use of play. Not a dry history lecture; this workshop includes fun facts, stories and historical activities. This workshop meets CE requirements for APT Registered Play Therapist credential. (6 CE hours)
