January 2016

CAPT Spring 2016 Conference We Play. What's your Superpower?
with Liana Lowenstein, MSW, RSW, CPT-S

Liana is a Registered Clinical Social Worker, Certified Play Therapist-Supervisor, and Certified TF-CBT Therapist who has been working with children and their families since 1988. She presents trainings across North America and abroad. Recent speaking engagements include South Africa, Israel, England, and Australia. Liana provides clinical supervision to mental health practitioners, runs a play-therapy internship program, and consults to several mental health agencies. Liana has authored numerous books, including: Creative Interventions for Troubled Children & Youth; Creative Interventions for Children of Divorce; Creative Interventions for Bereaved Children; and Cory Helps Kids Cope with Sexual Abuse. She is winner of the Monica Herbert award for outstanding contribution and dedication to child psychotherapy and play therapy in Canada.

Creative Interventions for Children and Families Coping with Loss

will be held on FEBRUARY 26-27, 2016

at the DoubleTree by Hilton Denver Tech Center 7801 East Orchard
Road, Greenwood Village, CO 80111

Reserve your room on location for only $149.00 per night!

Four of the eight breakout sessions include:

How to Magnify the Magic of Metaphor in Play Therapy

Penny Thome, MA, RN, LPC, RPT

At the heart of Play Therapy is metaphor. Participants will stir up their own creative juices to "answer" themes from children's play.

Transform Your Interventions with the Therapeutic Powers of Play

Jane L. Johnson, LLC, LCSW, RPT-S

Learn about these special powers; change mechanisms that make play therapy work. Expand your powers in helping parents understand what makes play therapy work.

The Power of Mutual Storytelling Techniques in Play Therapy

JoLynne Reynolds, Ph.D., LPC, RPT-S and Katie Beth Bove, MA, LPC, NCC

Mutual Story Telling is a process of story creation between a counselor and a child where storytelling is used to assist the child in exploring new solutions to problems.

Supervision for Play Therapy: A Theraplay® Model

Linda Klein, LPC, RPT-S and Jane Johnson, LCSW, RPT-S

Because play therapy relies more on non-verbal interactions it only makes sense that our approach to supervision should go beyond verbal models and use one of the play therapy theories to guide our supervisory work. Juggling complex client systems can be overwhelming to novice play therapists and to their supervisors.
